

SCOTT WATSON ASSOCIATES, INC
Lighting Consultants

SOME RECENT COURTHOUSE PROJECTS

DC Superior Courts, H. Carl Moultrie Courthouse, Washington, DC

Lighting for proposed 5-story addition, including court room suites, lobbies, circulation space, judges' chambers, prisoner holding areas, and office space, interior and exterior, LEED Platinum (DIDs, 2010-2012, now in CDs)

Interior Lighting for main entrance to the building on Indiana Avenue (2006)

*Lighting for the new Arraignment Court facility, C Street Level (2010)

Lighting for new Family Court entrance lobby, with sculpture and art glass accents, and for the major lobby/corridor and transaction area, James Marshall Level (2005, 2010)

Lighting for renovated fourth-floor office space and second-floor circulation (2010)

Exterior lighting for renovated secondary entrance plaza, C Street side (2011)

*Lighting and controls for renovated Sixth-floor Judges' Suite, including dining facilities, conference rooms, Law Library, and executive conference room (2010)

Moynihan Federal Courthouse, New York, NY

Lighting for proposed entry pavilion with security screening area, renovated attorneys' lounge, and architectural features in the adjacent public plaza. LEED Gold. (2011-2013)

DC Superior Courts, Building C, 410 E Street, NW, Washington, DC

Lighting consultation for initial planning phase (2006)

*Lighting design for exterior, interior core and shell, and interior tenant space for completely gutted and renovated facility, with historic architectural elements and light fixtures preserved and updated to meet modern standards. LEED Gold. (2009-2012)

*Project begun at TLP, with Scott Watson as Chief designer and project manager, and continued at SWA.

Scott Watson Associates, Inc – 6107 West Mill Road, Flourtown, PA 19031 – P (610) 687-6677